SHOULD ACCEPT STORY OF JONAH AND WHALE

Rev. H. B. Hostetter Says That Great Miracles Than This Have Been Performed.

"We should accept the story of Jonah and the whale as it is written in the bible," said Rev. H. B. Hostetter, Sunday night when he delivered a lecture on the Book of Jonah at the Westminster Presbyterian church.

He said many people ridiculed the story saying it was untrue, as it was so near impossible. He showed that many similar and equally great miracles have been performed since that time and people believe them and criticized those who would not believe the whole story.

Rev. Mr. Hostetter covered the entire book in the sermon, pointing out each successive lesson. He urged the lesson of obedience to God, and that man be guided by a clean and moral conscience.

Thirty new members were united with the church at the service and the chorus in charge of B. F. Augustine rendered special music.

WOMAN KILLS ANOTHER

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 6.—Mrs. James Smith, 35, was shot and instantly killed by Mrs. Silas Gibson in a dance hall at High Bridge, near here today. Mrs. Smith was standing in the dance hall with her husband and was holding a seven months old baby in her arm when Mrs. Gibson came up from behind and fired the fatal shot. Jealousy is believed to have been the cause of the murder.

RELIGION APPEALS TO BEST IN MAN

Is Relationship Between God and Man and Keeps a Man's Soul to God, Says Rev. Jas. L. Gardiner.

"Religion is one of the greatest and deepest facts in human life," said Rev. James L. Gardiner, in his morning sermon at St. Paul's M. E. church Sunday, when he used the theme "A Religion for the Whole Man," as his subject. The service was largely attended and special music was rendered.

He said that religion is relationship between God and man. "It is that deep and abiding thing that binds a man's soul to God," he said. "Man is naturally religious. Christianity is the highest, sanest and strongest expression of religion that the world has ever known. It is a religion that appeals to the whole man. It appeals to man's mind; it appeals to his heart; it appeals to his will."

"Read the Bible and you will be pleased to note that the writers appeal to the highest and best in human intellects. The God of the Old Testament would have men reason with Him. 'Come now,' He says, 'Let us reason together.' He said, 'The New Testament and you will find Christ saying, 'Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy mind.'

Appeals to Intellect.

"The Bible not only appeals to the intellect; it appeals to the heart. It is in the heart that Christ longs to manifest Himself. Hence He says to men, 'Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart.' There is such a thing as emotion in religion. Religion expresses itself according to the temperament and taste of the individual. Therefore with some it is exceedingly emotional."

"The greatest thing for making and building up a strong character is the religion of the Lord Jesus Christ because it appeals to the intellect, heart and will of man. No wonder Christianity is declared to be the highest and best religion the world has ever known. It is rational, emotional and volitional."

Fight Against Evil.

FAIR SMOKER IS SURPRISE AT NEWPORT

MRS. LEONARD M. THOMAS.

Mrs. Leonard M. Thomas, formerly Miss Blanche Oelrichs, who astonished the populace of Newport recently by stepping from her limousine in broad day light on a bus—thoroughfare with a lighted cigarette between her lips. Mrs. Thomas continued puffing on the paper roll while she examined the shop windows and even after she entered a department store, where some of her friends who saw her were amazed at her daring.

as his subject, "The Young Man's Battle With Evil Habits." He said in part:

"Habit has been defined as the 'tendency or inclination toward an action which by repetition is made easy, spontaneous or even unconscious.' We know from experience that the thing done once is done more easily the second time. This in fact is the origin of habit."

"Many men are the slaves of evil habit. Now John says in our text that he who committeth sin is the slave of sin."

The speaker then showed how many young men had fallen into the habit of swearing, or lying or gambling or drinking intoxicating liquors. He indicated that the only way to break away from old habits was by the grace of God to cultivate good habits. He urged young men to form the habit of praying and reading the Bible daily. He especially exhorted that every one cultivate the habit of thinking seriously about God and the great subject of the religion of the Lord Jesus Christ.

MAN TOO PRONE TO COMPROMISE WITH EVIL

Honest, Upright Way, the Only Way to Do Anything, Says Rev. C. A. Lippincott.

At the First Presbyterian church vesper service Sunday Rev. C. A. Lippincott, D. D., spoke on "A Celebrated Sin," taking as his text "Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin." Jeroboam was the clever son of a widow, whose talent and industry commended him to king Solomon, by whom he was promoted to a position of great responsibility. When the kingdom of Israel was disrupted upon the death of Solomon, Jeroboam was chosen king of the ten tribes, with the assurance from God that if he was faithful to him his dynasty would be perpetuated.

Jeroboam fearing that the ten tribes would return to the throne of David set up golden calves in his own borders in order that his people might not go up to Jerusalem to worship and so be weaned away. In doing this he manifested a lack of faith in God and a dependence upon worldly policy. The immediate result of this policy was the corruption of Israel's religion. So far reaching was the effect of his sin that it is referred to more than twenty times, and Jeroboam is pilloried in the subsequent history as "the man who made Israel sin."

Jeroboam was the victim of his own cleverness. He believed in God, but did not think that God quite understood his own business. He thought that it was necessary to depart from the straight path of duty in order to make the ends of providence sure. This is a common sin. Intelligent men think that an end justifies the means and so far reaching was the effect of his sin that it is referred to more than twenty times, and Jeroboam is pilloried in the subsequent history as "the man who made Israel sin."

EVERYONE SHOULD HAVE SOME AIM IN VIEW

Rev. Henry L. Davis Makes a Plea for Higher Ambitions in Sunday Sermon.

Rev. Henry L. Davis pointed out in his Sunday evening sermon at the First M. E. church that we should be aiming at a goal which we should make every effort to reach. He was preaching on the subject, "Laws of Progress."

The year for the church work of this district began, Sunday and Rev. Mr. Davis chose his subject particularly to point out the ways of at-

FAMOUS ACTRESS LOSES 70 LBS. OF FAT

Texas Guinan, Star of the N. Y. Winter Garden "Passing Show of 1912" Offers Her Own Marvelous New Treatment to Fat Folks.

NEW TREATMENT GIVES ELEGANCE OF FIGURE AND STARTLING RESULTS QUICKLY

Eat All You Want and Grow Thin—Reduce Rapidly as Much as Desired—The World's Youngest and Most Beautiful Star Shows All Womankind the Way to Slim Grace and Beauty.

"Texas" Guinan, once a plain, stout girl who suddenly and mysteriously reduced herself to fawn-like, fascinating, fair proportions, now idolized by the thrilled and dazzled audiences before whom she appeared in "The Passing Show of 1912" and "The Kissing Girl," a peerless artist whose immaculate melody of voice and bewitching beauty of face and figure have taken American theater-goers by storm. It is said she was pronounced by New York's foremost theatrical manager as "The most perfectly formed woman alive."

MISS TEXAS GUINAN

declared to be "God's Masterpiece" and the most fascinating actress in America."

As Texas Guinan had to perform at the matinee it seemed the easiest thing in the world to arrange an interview without consulting her. The vigilant stage door-keeper was easily passed. The dressing-room was hospitably turned open by a maid, and then—well, Miss Guinan, that is, what is left of her, appeared.

"So you have come to learn the story of my weight reduction, have you?" said Texas in her breezy style, with her glorious countenance beaming in smiles at her supreme gladness, realizing how appreciative the world was in bestowing admiration and applause upon her, all on account of the new glory of her form, which she transformed almost as if by magic with her own marvelous new treatment.

"While you are not going to get away with my secret," said Texas, "it is true that my seventy pounds of weight reduction was brought about with my own delightful treatment, but it cost me a pretty sum of money to learn of it, and I am not giving my secret of how I lost my weight free to reporters, but I have written a book telling all about this wondrous new treatment which rescued me from the thralldom of fat. This book has just come off the press and is offered to you for a limited time at a very low price. It is a book for men and women, as I early learned in life that the only way to know happiness was to give it to others, and if by letting the world know of this harmless, quick method of reducing weight I can do a great good, then I will feel that I have not lived in vain."

"But won't you give me an inkling of its component parts? Just a suggestion as to what it is, or will I have to be content to read your free book telling all about it?"

"That is exactly it," said Texas, "but I don't mind telling you what the treatment is not. It does not consist of internal drugs or medicine; there is nothing taken internally. Neither is there any worthless, harmful cream to rub on the body. There is no sweating, no bandages, no Turkish baths. The treatment does not consist of a single exercise or physical culture of any description. There is no diet. One may absolutely eat all the food they desire of any kind, and go right on reducing without depriving themselves in any way."

"There are no enemas or flushing of the colon, no harmful massaging, no sweating garments to wear, no immersing yourself in hot baths with the tub filled with obesity water or epsom salts, nor does it include any medical concoction of any kind, and it has nothing to do with the usual prescription to have filled. There is no formula to carry out, no soaps to rub on the skin, neither is it a religious faith cure or Christian Science stunt. It is not a vibratory electric massage treatment, mental suggestion—no, and it is not a belt or mechanical device of any kind."

I have tried many such fakes. I tried druggists' pills, harmful concoctions to rub on the body. I have tried sweating and taking Turkish baths, exercising, physical culture, and everything else that science without result, and without losing weight. As I was about to give up and give up in disgust all four efforts to reduce my enormous weight, which was two hundred and forty pounds, I, by lucky accident, learned of the simple, harmless, rapid, safest, fat reducing treatment on earth. I tried it on myself with astonishing results. My fat melted away like butter, and I called it the wondrous change in my taining greater things next year. He showed that the church has grown considerably in the last year, having added a long list of active members to its enrollment as a result of the Billy Sunday services.

One special obligation that lies before the church pointed out by the pastor was the completing of the new church on N. Main st. He showed how it should be dedicated to Christ's service and the advantages that the new structure would give the congregation.

He said "the people must not feel satisfied with the things done in the past, but must set out to do more. His text was taken from Philippians, 11:14, in which Paul told the Philippians that he pressed toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus, and called on them to realize the same high mark and endeavor to attain it."

He said that there are three forms of life. First he pointed to a degenerate form where the man or woman is sliding slowly backward into the clutches of the devil. Then he showed the balanced form of life and said it was where a person neither progressed or slid backward, but accepts and resists equally. Lastly he showed the higher laws of evolution where the person had a definite higher spiritual object in view and used every effort to reach it. He said that the first was the easiest course to follow while the last was the hardest as it meant strife and work waged against the devil where resistance was the greatest. Special music was furnished at each service.

NATURE IS HARDER TO UNDERSTAND THAN GOD

Mysteries of Earth More Baffling Yet People Readily Accept Them, Says Rev. Mr. Dougherty.

Rev. F. K. Dougherty in his sermon Sunday morning at Grace M. E. church said that there may be a number of things about the words of God that men cannot understand, but that as there are things in nature much harder to understand which he accepts as true without question. He used "Knowing the Unknown" as his subject.

"And to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge," from Ephesians, III-19, was the text taken by Rev. Mr. Dougherty. He said in part: "At first glance these words would seem to be a contradiction but a closer study reveals that the words in our text, 'to know,' has been frequently rendered 'to know in part.' The word indicates a process rather than knowledge already possessed."

My reduction grew greater and greater until finally, I was almost appalled with delight when I realized the stupendous success of my efforts and when I awoke to the fact that I had reduced 70 pounds of my fat without leaving a wrinkle, and the glory of my new figure and tolerance and beauty of my curves gave me the admiration of the world.
